THE INNOVATION TAKE OVER

Social Media Week Lagos celebrated its 5th year and as part of the festivities, Junior Achievement Nigeria (JAN) was invited to participate in a presentation on FirstBank of Nigeria Innovation Stage. The winners of the 2016 National Company of the Year Competition, Innovative Minds of Caro Favored College presented their company and winning product, a programmable dot-matrix LED display. We thank FirstBank for their generous support of this team and JA Company program overall. For more information, click here to visit our blog.

WOMEN, FINANCIAL LITERACY & BEING BOLD FOR CHANGE

In commemoration of the 2017 International Women's Day celebration themed "Be Bold For Change", Junior Achievement Nigeria partnered with some of the nation's most influential women to teach primary school pupils the fundamentals of financial literacy through the implementation of a Junior Achievement Nigeria program called - JA More Than Money. The women taught at the Federal Housing Estate Primary School, Victoria Island Primary School, Awoyaya Primary School and Ansarudeen Primary School. FINANCIAL LITERACY DAY

In celebration of Global Money Week 2017, the Central Bank of Nigeria (CBN) declared March 30, 2017 Financial Literacy Day, on which MD/CEOs and top executives of 29 banks and financial institutions across the nation visited over 800 schools in 36 states to teach financial literacy curriculum provided by Junior Achievement Nigeria. Over 80,000 students were impacted through Junior Achievement Nigeria's cutting-edge curriculum based on this year's Global Money Week's "Learn. Save. Earn" theme which was set to hold worldwide from Monday 27th March – Sunday 2nd April 2017. For more information on this story and other current events, click here to visit our blog.
